

New Voter Registration Campaign

REPORT

A New Voter Registration Campaign was successfully conducted at Gokhale Education Society's HPT Arts & RYK Science College on December 4, 2023. The event, held in the college's seminar hall, aimed to register students as new voters and promote awareness about the importance of voter registration. Distinguished guests, including Nashik District Deputy Collector Shashikant Mangarule and District Coordinator of Varshap Foundation, Shri Avinash Shirsat, were in attendance. They provided students with a comprehensive understanding of the voter registration process and its significance. College Principal, Dr. Mrinalini Deshpande, encouraged students to exercise their right to vote by registering as new voters, while Vice Principal, Dr. Prashant Deshpande, also graced the occasion. Nodal Officer, Dr. Kailash Sanap, effectively hosted the event and highlighted the importance of new voter registration. As a result of the campaign, 105 college students were successfully registered online as new voters. The program was inaugurated and moderated by Dr. Kailash Sanap, and Prof. Priya Sonwani extended a vote of thanks. The success of the campaign was made possible with the support of Prof. S.B. Pagar, Prof. J.P. Patil, Prof. Rakesh Walvi, Prof. Shankar Bhoir, and Dr. Vijay Desale.
