Report on Blood Donation Camp 25th July 2021

On 25th July 2021, the NSS Unit of HPT Arts and RYK Science College, in collaboration with the Civil Hospital, Nashik, organized a Blood Donation Camp. The primary goal of this camp was to encourage voluntary blood donation and contribute to the availability of blood for patients in need.

A total of 36 blood bags were successfully collected during the camp, showcasing the generosity and commitment of the donors. The event was a significant step toward supporting the local healthcare system and addressing the critical need for blood during medical emergencies.

The Blood Donation Camp was overseen by Prof. Manoj Giram and Prof. Santosh Pagar, NSS Programme Officers, who provided guidance and support throughout the event. They were joined by several faculty members, including Prof. Pragati Deshmukh, Prof. B.U. Patil, Prof. Jitendra Patil, Prof. R.T. Valvi, Dr. Bharati Kolhe, and Prof. Sagar Varade, all of whom actively participated in the camp and ensured its smooth operation.

The event was led by the NSS volunteers, who were instrumental in organizing and managing the camp. Their dedication and hard work in coordinating the blood donation process and assisting donors were vital to the camp's success.

This Blood Donation Camp not only contributed to saving lives but also reinforced the spirit of social responsibility and service among the students and staff of HPT Arts and RYK Science College. The successful completion of this event highlighted the importance of such initiatives in fostering a sense of community and supporting essential health services.
